

WEATHER FORECAST

Arkansas: Cloudy with showers; local thunderstorms this afternoon, tonight, Wednesday. Little change in temperatures.
Experiment Station report for 24-hours ending at 7 a. m. Tuesday, High 61, Low 51, precipitation .49 of an inch, making 2-day total of 1.70 inches.

Deadline Nears for Qualifying as Candidate

With the ticket closing deadline set for noon Wednesday, May 2, prospective candidates have very little time left in which to make up their minds. The first election is July 31 and the primary August 14.

Democratic Central Committee Chairman W. S. Atkins urged today that more citizens give attention to Justice of the Peace posts. He noted that only six had qualified and that DeRoan Township could have eleven.

He pointed to the importance of the Quorum Court, made up of Justices of the Peace, which is usually the legislative body of the county. It only requires a fee of $1.00 and filing party pledges to enter as a candidate. It was also pointed out that each township is entitled to two JPs regardless of the number of votes.

Up until 11 a. m. Tuesday the following candidates had qualified:

Chancellor — James H. Pilkinton.

Prosecuting Attorney — Travis Mathis.

County Judge — U. G. Garrett, Clifford Russell and Olin Brint.

Sheriff — Jimmie Cook and Dean Parsons.

County Treasurer — Harry Hawthorne.

Circuit Clerk — Ray McDowell, Clifford Byers.

Tax Assessor — Jerome Smith and Garrett Willis.

Representative — Talbot Feild.

Croner — Dr. C. Lynn Harris.

Surveyor — J. Gordon Prescott.

Constable — Bois d' Arc Township, Bob Hester.

JP DeRoan Township — Roy Anderson, J. M. Dodson, Thomas E. Hays, Dale Jones, Lee Norton.

Nolan Township — A. R. Avery.

Mine Creek Township — Floyd Matthews, C. M. Lewis.

Bois d' Arc — Roy Lewis, J. K. Harrell, Claud Vann.

Ozan Township — Dalton Hulsey, Thomas L. Webb.

Spring Hill Township — Fred Fuller, O. O. Brint, Francis C. Key.

Wallaceburg Township — Zack Stone.

Saline Township — R. F. Caldwell.

Hope City Clerk — Mrs. Charles Reynerson.

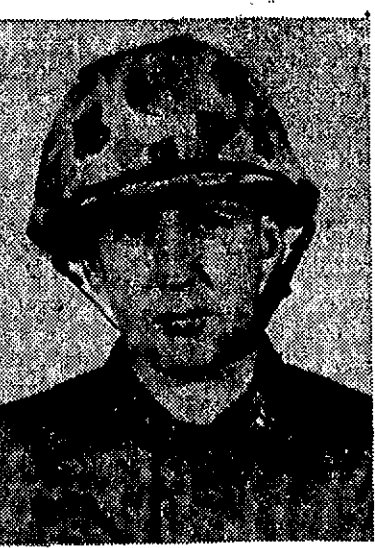

Hope City Attorney — C. V. Nunn Jr.

Alderman Ward 1 — Roy Taylor.

Alderman Ward 2 — T. O. Porter, John Greene.

Alderman Ward 3 — Olin Lewis, R. L. Rettig.

Alderman Ward 4 — Homer Beyersley.

Capt. Murphy

CAMP PENDLETON, Calif. — (FTHNC) — Serving with the 1st Marine Division's 7th Engineer Battalion is marine Capt. Rowland M. Murphy, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Murphy of 1223 N. Hazel St., Hope, Ark., and husband of the former Miss Mary McDermott of Huntington, W. Va.

Before entering the service in 1951 he graduated from the University of Mississippi.

He took part in operation "Engfex II", a three-day engineering exercise held March 12-15 at Camp Pendleton.

During "Engfex II" the engineers used new amphibious warfare techniques in one event constructing a 2,000-foot "aerial tramway" to resupply an inaccessible unit.

Gentry Out as Candidate, Few Still Considering

By United Press

Tension was mounting at the capitol today, and speculation was riding high as to who will be next to announce for the No. 1 political race in Arkansas, or who might withdraw as a possible gubernatorial candidate.

At noon today, former State Sen. Jim Johnson of Crossett was expected momentarily to appear at the office of Secretary of State C. G. Hall and file his corrupt practices and party loyalty pledges. Last night at a segregation rally in Little Rock, Johnson was "drafted" into running, and accepted when the crowd shelled out more than enough money for the $1,500 filing fee.

Earlier today, Attorney General Tom Gentry squelched rumors that he would oppose Gov. Orval E. Faubus for a second term. Gentry issued a statement that he would not seek any political office in the summer primaries. He said he would devote his entire time to the private practice of law when his second term expires next January.

Bon F. Pippen of Little Rock, a 70-year-old former supervisor of the weights and standards division, announced last week that he would be a candidate for governor. However, he had not paid his filing fee at noon today.

With less than 24 hours left before the ticket closes at noon tomorrow, two other possible candidates had not been heard from.

Little Rock mail packing executive Chris Finkbeiner was in conference all morning, and was unavailable for comment about his intentions. He had announced recently that his friends were urging him to make the race for governor, but he had not made up his mind.

The final name linked with the governor's race was Jim Snoddy, an Alma automobile accessory dealer. He was in a Little Rock hotel room "awaiting for a telephone call from friends." It was learned that Snoddy and Gentry had a telephone conversation before Gentry issued his morning statement. Snoddy declined comment other than to acknowledge the call.

To date, only Faubus and Johnson were firmly entered in the race. Faubus was the first to announce. He threw his hat into the ring last Wednesday with the expected announcement that he would try for his traditional second term. He paid his fees at the time.

At noon today, Johnson had not qualified, but the Crossett leader of the White Citizens Council could not easily back out. The people themselves had already paid his filing fee, although it had not been turned over to the state and party authorities.

Phil Stratton, aide to Johnson, assured United Press shortly before noon that Johnson would be at the capitol with pledges and fee within a few hours.

In a press conference after Faubus announced, he said he did not think integration would be a major issue in the campaign. However, Johnson appeared certain to run on a pro-segregationist platform. Depending upon who else gets into the race, the integration issue could be the hottest of the primaries.

Other bid invitations on the department's list include, opening April 30, surgical dressings for the Children's Home and Hospital; opening May 1, feed and cans for the Boys Industrial School; opening May 2, material and labor for painting the interior of the Health Department building; opening May 3, a house moving job for the Penitentiary and aluminum tags and seals for the Labor Department's Boiler Inspection Division; opening May 7, shoes for the Penitentiary; opening May 8, boiler installation for the Tuberculosis Sanatorium; and, opening May 10, dry goods for the Deaf School.

Through direct purchasing procedure, Henderson State Teachers College will take bids until April 28 for installation of a heating and air conditioning unit in the president's campus home; the University of Arkansas Medical Center will open bids May 1 on groceries, hospital supplies and globulin; and the University of Arkansas, on May 10, on an automatic check signing machine.

The Highway Department has bid openings scheduled May 3 on grader blades, service pins, timber, cement, gravel and sand, mineral aggregate, crushed stone base material, automatic gasoline pumps, electric welder, bin shelving, precast concrete bridge units, dense graded bituminous cold plant mix, steel beams, and labor and material to drill a well at area headquarters north of Focalmonts.

Local 4-H Club Youth Is Awarded

Jesse Duckett

Jesse Duckett, son of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Duckett of Hope, has been selected to receive the William H. Danforth Scholarship award to attend Camp Miniwanka, the American Youth Foundation Leadership Training Camp on Stony Lake in Oceana County, Michigan, announced Oliver L. Adams, Hempstead County Agent, today.

Jesse, a leader in Arkansas 4-H Club activities, was awarded the Southwest Arkansas District Leadership title last fall. As one of the state's district winners, he was selected to receive the Danforth Scholarship to represent Arkansas at the two weeks camp August 13-26.

Young Duckett, the President of the Hempstead County 4-H Club Council, is a member of the Victory Community 4-H Club of which Mrs. William Schooley and Sidney Cash are leaders. Jesse is a leader among Hempstead County beef producers and the owner of several head of registered and grade Polled Herefords. Last fall he was selected as the Champion Showmanship Award winner at the Third State Livestock Show and exhibited champion animals at the Four-States Show at Texarkana, the Arkansas Livestock Show at Little Rock and the District Show at Hope. Jesse is a member of the Arkansas Purple Circle Club.

During the last three years Jesse has served as a Junior leader in the county 4-H Conservation Camp, assisting in directing the activities of around 80 junior campers for two days. He was selected as a leader by the youth and adult leaders at the State Conservation Camp at Camp Clearfork and at the State Forestry Camp at Petit Jean State Park. A present he is assisting in planning for other Hempstead County youth to attend these camps this summer.

The scholarship covers the expenses of the two weeks training and transportation expenses.

Nation Mourns the Death of Sen. Barkley

By DONALD F. MARTIN

LEXINGTON, Va., (UP) — Alben W. Barkley, the nation's beloved vice president, died of a heart attack late yesterday in the midst of the lively political activity he loved.

Today his body began its final journey to Washington, where for nearly half a century the Democratic party's old warhorse had served in the House, the Senate and at the right hand of a president.

Funeral services will be held Wednesday in Washington at the Foundry Methodist church, with Dr. Frederick Brown Harris, chaplain of the Senate, officiating. Barkley will be buried Friday at his home town of Paducah, Ky.

Kentucky Gov. A. B. Chandler last night declared a 30-day state of mourning.

Barkley, 78, collapsed and died (at about 6:15 p.m. EDT) before a stunned audience of 1,700 at a quadrennial mock national convention at Washington and Lee university.

He had just won long applause with one of the oratorical strokes for which he was famous, by this comment on his latest role of again being Kentucky's junior senator:

"I am willing to be a junior. . . I would rather be a servant in the House of the Lord than to sit in the seats of the mighty."

Barkley after a pause fell to the floor behind the microphone. The outburst of clapping suddenly still.

His wife the former Mrs. Carleton Hadley, who was sitting in the front row rushed to the stage and was one of the first to reach him.

Dr. Robert Munger, Lexington heart specialist, reached the scene after a rescue squad had tried to revive Barkley with oxygen, and pronounced him dead of a heart attack.

The Kentucky senator died while once again swinging into a campaign battle on behalf of his party, but Democrats and Republicans alike, stunned by Barkley's death, immediately poured in their eulogies.

Warns Russia Pressure Will Be Resisted

BY WARREN ROGERS JR.

WASHINGTON (AP) — The United States has told the Communists it won't tolerate pressure on Iron Curtain refugees to give up sanctuary in this country.

The State Department handed Red Poland's Ambassador Romuald Spasowski a note yesterday accusing him and other Polish officials of abusing their diplomatic status. It said they were trying to pressure Polish refugees in this country into returning behind the Iron Curtain. The note demanded: Stop it at once.

Spasowski indicated Poland would make a formal reply. He said that in the case of three Polish seamen who gave up U. S. sanctuary and went home last fall, the seamen approached the embassy first.

The U. S. note declared Polish diplomats had made "unsolicited personal visits" as part of a campaign to coerce Polish nationals out of their U. S. asylum.

Folsom Faces Opposition in Alabama

MONTGOMERY, Ala., (AP) — The big question mark in today's Democratic primary in Alabama is the vote-pulling power of Gov. James E. Folsom, who predicted a few months ago he "couldn't be elected dogcatcher" in the state. His stand on segregation has been under fire.

Folsom is in a three-way race for Democratic national committeeman has been accused by political opponents of trying to put a "Folsom slate" into office in other races.

In addition to the national committeeman race, voters will reelect Mrs. Lennard Thomas of Montgomery as national committeewoman. She is unopposed.

Also to be elected are 52 delegates to cast Alabama's 26 votes at the national convention. Eleven presidential electors and party candidates for Congress and several state and district offices will be nominated.

Esso to Sell Three Grades of Gasoline

Savings of millions of dollars for the American motorist are possible through a three-grade system of marketing gasoline, Stanley C. Hope, Esso Standard Oil Company president, declared today.

Esso Standard, he announced, will introduce such a system.

Beginning June 20, he disclosed that the company will market three brands of gasoline — regular, premium and a new still higher quality motor fuel for automobiles with high-compression engines.

According to Mr. Hope, the new power fuel should be available to

In announcing the higher quality motor fuel, the company moved about four years ahead of schedule. The new gasoline contains power-producing elements of an advanced motor fuel that was originally scheduled for production by Esso in 1960.

Motorists are demanding cars with better performance," Mr. Hope explained, "and to deliver performance most efficiently, automobile manufacturers have increased compression ratios. These higher ratios demand a higher grade of fuel. Our new gasoline is designed to meet that need."

ket declined moderately today with resistance to the fall appearing in quite a number of places. Despite that, however, prices were down all around in the early afternoon. Losses amounted to about 2 points at the most while plus signs were almost entirely fractional.

Motors, faced with sales resistance for their products, were the most active of the major groups at lower prices.

NEW YORK COTTON

NEW YORK (AP) — Cotton futures were irregular in slow trading today. Erratic price movements prevailed in old crop July. Spring, Winter Weather Warring

By United Press
Spring and winter weather waged a cross-country battle today, touching off floods, a tornado, and southland snows.

The battle line stretched from the Rockies to North Carolina. Texas was hardest hit with a tornado which ripped through Hovey last night and flash floods which boiled up following five inches of rain.

A southeast New Mexico hailstorm turned the ground white, while heavy snow was reported near Williamston, N.C. Thunderstorms rumbled today from northern Texas eastward into Tennessee, North Carolina, and Virginia.

The Hovey tornado tore through the center of the small West Texas town. It ripped out all power and communications lines, but miraculously refrained from more serious damage.

Russia Shows New Type of Jet Fighter

MOSCOW, (UP) — The Soviet Union displayed a new type Mikoyan jet fighter today in the annual May Day show of Russian armed might. The swift jets zoomed over Red square while military and naval units paraded on the ground below Russia's assembled leaders and a crowd of hundreds of thousands.

It was Russia's traditionally biggest annual display of arms and Marshal Georgi Zhukov, the Soviet defense minister, sounded its keynote in an address warning against "complacency" while "imperialist circles continue the policy of cold war."

"Under these circumstances," Zhukov said, "the peoples must not relax their vigilance and determination in the struggle for peace, against the threat of a new war."

Zhukov's speech was regarded as relatively mild, and so was the military part of the parade. It apparently disclosed no new equipment.

Forty-eight of the new type jets whistled overhead so fast that witnesses on the ground were unable to describe them closely. Observers said they may be an improved model of the MIG-15.

Western observers on the ground near the Lenin-Stalin mausoleum were unable to establish immediately the identity of the new jetfighter, named for one of the developers of the MIG-15.

(Artem Mikoyan, brother of Soviet first deputy premier Anastas I. Mikoyan, is co-designer with Mikhail Gurevich of the MIG-15 jet of Korean war fame. The initials "MIG" come from their names.)

(Western intelligence reports already had knowledge of existence of a later MIG-17 model which first appeared in 1953 or 1954. It was believed to be slimmer with greater backswing to the wings and higher speed.)

(Moscow Radio's mention of the "new Mikoyan fighter" was believed to mean this was a later plane than the MIG-17.)

While the new fighters raced by in formation troops marched past the mausoleum led by cadets of the Soviet military academies. After a huge military parade school-children led an even greater parade of civilians into the square.

The youngsters ran to the mausoleum and presented garlands of flowers to the government leaders led by Premier Nikolai Bulganin and Communist Party Leader Nikita S. Khrushchev.

Bulganin and Khrushchev returned only yesterday from their state visit to Britain.

Zhukov as defense minister took the salute of parading troops and delivered the major May Day address.

After welcoming the Soviet armed forces and the "respected foreign guests" Zhukov referred to the "new success" achieved by the Soviet people through "following the path indicated by Lenin."

For the first time security guards allowed Western correspondents and guests to take pictures of the military parade. It included green painted armored reconnaissance cars, various types of carrier-drawn artillery and anti-aircraft guns and heavy field pieces.

The famous Red square was decorated with hundred foot red banners and slogans extolling the Communist party and the Soviet people. Twenty-five-foot portraits of Karl Marx and V. I. Lenin hung from the facade of the G.U.M. department store opposite the Mausoleum.

There were no pictures of Josef Stalin.

Angry Boy, 13, Kills Man, Wounds Wife

MILFORD, Pa. (AP) — A 13-year-old boy who "got a little mad" when a man and his wife scolded him for target shooting near their home yesterday turned his .22 rifle on them, fatally wounding the husband and critically wounding the wife.

State Trooper Evan R. Chaplin said James Van Why readily admitted the shooting after his capture in a field where he fled after wrecking and abandoning the couple's car.

Edward W. Ebele, 48, died of head wounds. His wife Margaret, 45, was in critical condition today in St. Francis Hospital at Port Jervis, N. Y. She was also shot in the head.

Chaplin said the boy "told us that 'we got a little mad at each other' and that was why he shot them."

Van Why had both the rifle and a .38-caliber pistol with him when arrested. He offered no resistance.

Dist. Atty. Clifton A. Cloud said he had not yet decided what charges to place against the boy. A 13-year-old may be charged with murder in Pennsylvania.

The chronically ill occupy three of every four U.S. hospital beds.

Joe D. Webb vs. J. C. Howard and Killie May Howard, Action for $29.00, Judgment by default for Court costs.

Dear Dorothy Dix: When I started my present job, I was just out of school. The office force is small — four besides myself — and the other workers are older. They were very nice to me, and I took to bringing them homemade candy, candy, cookies and such (I'm quite a good cook).

After a year of bringing in treats, it suddenly dawned on me that I have never been thanked nor has anyone else ever brought things in. Furthermore, the girls are beginning to expect my goodies, even going as far as to tell me what they'd like next.

I enjoy doing things for others, but I don't want to have them take advantage of me.

Dear D. D.: It would serve these girls right if your delicacies brought them unwanted poundage that only a strict diet would remove.

"Paper off your largesse to the point where treats again become unexpected pleasures, rather than taken-for-granted occurrences. Since you contribute so generously, your co-workers have lost their spontaneous appreciation. Now, they might as well eat store cake.

What a problem to confront me with at 11:30 a. m. I hope there's something good in my bread-box.

Dear Dorothy Dix: I am young and recently married, and need your advice on my first serious problem. My husband and I frequently go out dancing and there's one man he has forbidden me to dance with. This man is quite a flirt, but I think it's bad manners to refuse a dance.

Dear C. M.: Treatment of the big, bad wolf doesn't wait on etiquette. Who is more important, your husband or Emily Post?

Dear Dorothy Dix: I've been married a little over six weeks and suddenly realize I'm in love with my previous boy friend. My husband is a wonderful guy and I've tried hard to love him (he thinks I do).

Dear A. E.: These hangover romances are not at all uncommon. To the young and starry-eyed, an unshaven husband in the morning can't compare to the glamorous youth of prom days. Try to remember that the unshaven hunk of man is yours; the prom boy isn't.

KALAMAZOO, Mich. — (UP) — A resident of nearby Plainwell pleaded guilty yesterday to a drunk driving charge in municipal court.

His name: Tom Collins.

Sen. Jackson (D-Wash.) to call today for "several billions" more in Air Force funds.

Jackson is a member of a Senate Armed Services subcommittee which yesterday heard LeMay, chief of the Strategic Air Command, testify the Soviets already have more long-range bombers than this country, and are producing still more.

LeMay said this means the Russians "will have greater striking power than we will have" in the 1948-1950 period "under our present plans and programs."

As of now, the general said, this country can win "any war the Soviets may start." But he cautioned, "we are not capable of winning it without this country receiving very serious damage."

Jackson said in an interview he believes "it would take several billions to provide the complete package that Gen. LeMay testified is necessary."

Five Arkansans to Get Scholarships

CHICAGO, Ill., (UP) — The National Merit Scholarship Corp., today announced the names of seven Arkansas school students winners of scholarships.

They were among 525 boys and girls from 60,000 high school seniors who took competitive examinations. The scholarships awarded to the 525 totaled $3,160,000.

The Arkansas winners were Roger Wheatley Sudbury of Blytheville, Nancy Marie McCumber of Little Rock, John Russ Respass of Little Rock, Catherine Siler of Little Rock, and Dean Richards Morley, III, of North Little Rock, all national merit scholars; Diana Paul Bronte of McCrory, a Sears foundation merit scholar; and Nancy Jane Rector of Little Rock, a Three-Life merit scholar.

Forestry Plans a Day of Soil Stewardship

By Buster A. Denton, DF

Of all the Special days set aside for certain observance and recognition it seems to me that May 6th, designated as "Soil Stewardship Day," is at least a good suggestion that we stop and seriously think of what good soil is worth to every living thing on earth.

Throughout the ages, man has offered humble thanks to his creator for the priceless gift of soil, water and sunshine. That makes all living things possible. So it is well that on this day, we pause and certainly have every reason to be thankful for our soil. It would be good for each of us to remind ourselves that we have a sacred obligation to cherish and care for the Lord's earth, which certainly gives birth and nourishment for each and everything that lives.

We so often neglect and prove to be poor stewards of the land. Most often, our short comings and neglect are caused from lack of knowledge and understanding of the Divine Laws of Creation, that we are only custodians and not owner of the land. The Scriptures tell us that the land belongs to the Lord, (we are only stewards).

History clearly points out that mankind in his greediness and disregard of the Law of Nature and properly handling of the land, is not only penalizing himself but all generations to follow by robbing the soils of its precious supply of plant food.

One of our chief or principal reasons for loss of soil is through erosion, which can be corrected if a man will follow the instructions, not only of Scientist, Soil Conservation people, but the Bible.

Many of nature's own plants, such as the cover crop and the trees, have a responsibility in carrying on the fight against soil erosion. The leaves on the trees help check the rain before it reaches the earth, then the layer of leaves and straw on the ground check the rain fall and slows down the water flow causing it to soak in the earth slowly and of course, the great mat of roots from the trees lock the soil together and the tiny tree roots grasp the soil and holds it permanently in place. All of this Natural Soil Conservation is free to mankind.

So our forest is not only growing a new crop of timber for our industries and helping to replenish the wild life and maintain our underground store of water, but it is helping mankind in his fight to preserve the soil.

Maybe we would become better Stewards of the Soil if we would take an inventory of where everything we have comes from. For an example: will there be anything on your Sunday Dinner table that didn't come directly or indirectly from the soil? Truly, we are one of the best fed, clothed, and housed people because of the rich productive soil that we have been blessed with.

We must admit that better soil Stewardship will be necessary if

The hurling of mud on Stalin's memory began some time ago.

The truth is that Shelepin has thrown a boulder at himself, and a bigger boulder at his entire people. For a quarter of a century the Soviet Union has been, for all practical purposes, a nation of from 810 to 200 million "hallelujah men."

In all that time there have been only two places where a Russian could say "No" — nyet — safely.

1. In the United Nations.

2. In his sleep — if he slept alone.

If he said "Nyet" anywhere else, he faced the likelihood of being purged — or the probability of soon would be mailing his "Wish you were here" postcards from an address in Siberia. Even for failing to shout "hallelujah" often enough and convincingly enough he might get a one-way ticket on the slow train to Siberia's Winter Wonderland.

An optimist might hope that Shelepin's attack presaged the fall of the old "hallelujah men" and the emergence of a new class of "Nyet men," sturdy men of conscience who would have the courage to say "No!" loudly and clearly to whatever they thought was wrong.

Such a hope, alas, is unlikely to come true.

Once a "yes man," either in Hollywood or Russia, always a "yes man." The successful "yes man" never has to change his principles, for he has only one principle — to stay on top himself by echoing whatever boss is in power. He merely has to have the chameleon's power to suit his coloration to the one prevailing.

No, Shelepin is hardly the forerunner of Russia's new "nyet men." He merely has added a high clear tenor to the swelling chorus of the Soviet Union's new "hallelujah men."

Far from saying "Nyet" to the new regime, Shelepin has cheerfully joined in the game of following the new leaders. He doesn't even have the strength to yell "Help!"

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Operations on the lungs to prove or disprove the existence of cancer now are justifiable in some cases, says a chest surgeon of the University of Pennsylvania Medical School.

The thing which makes this surgical gamble attractive, Dr. Julian Johnson told the California Medical Assn., is a statistical showing that the chances for a cure are good if the malignancy is no larger than the size of the average man's thumbnail.

Recent progress in surgical techniques and in the use of anesthetics has reduced the risk of the operation itself to the point where we want to keep good productive soil.

AFL-CIO to Consider Various Complaints

By NORMAN WALKER

WASHINGTON (AP) — AFL-CIO leaders gathered today to consider a variety of complaints against the giant Teamsters Union.

That was the main purpose of a special session of the AFL-CIO's 29-member Executive Council, it was called by George Meany, president of the merged 15-million-member organization.

The most pressing complaint against the 1,400,000-member Teamsters Union — its alliance with the International Longshoremen's Association — lost steam over the weekend.

The ILA, expelled from the old AFL several years ago for allegedly being gangster-dominated, suddenly pulled out of the deal in a move apparently designed to take Teamsters President Dave Beck off the spot.

The average U. S. wage earner lives 70 years compared with 40 years in 1909.

It may be less of a hazard than an X-ray shadow that may be cancer, Dr. Johnson said.

The increase in lung cancer has added urgency to this idea, he said. Except for malignancies of the skin and female organs, it now is at the top of the cancer list in Los Angeles, he reported. For the country as a whole, stomach cancer holds this No. 1 position.

When an X-ray shows a suspicious shadow, and here are no other threatening symptoms, there always is doubt as to whether it is cancer. The only sure way to find out is by operating. Delay may give cancer a start that surgery cannot overtake.

Big 3 Will Test Russia's Intentions

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER

WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of State Dulles and the foreign ministers of Britain and France probably will confer this week on a formula for testing Russia's offer to join in a general embargo on arms shipments to the Middle East.

The possibility of bringing Middle East arms shipments once again under some kind of control is regarded here as slight but worth looking into.

Dulles will leave for Paris tomorrow to attend a meeting of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization and diplomatic talks on a variety of international problems, dominated by the continuing Palestinian crisis, Russian maneuvers and the Cyprus dispute.

He will get a first-hand report from Britain's Delwyn Lloyd on the visit to London of Soviet Communist party boss Nikita Khrushchev and Premier Nikolai Bulganin.

Just before leaving London last Friday, Khrushchev said if it were possible to agree on an arms ban "through the United Nations or otherwise" Russia would take part. He said that as long as other nations sold arms the Soviet Union would do so.

The reaction here was one of great suspicion. Communist Czechoslovakia began selling arms to Egypt last fall, and Moscow comment then linked the transaction to the development of the anti-Communist Baghdad Pact in the Middle East.

Speculation in official quarters here is that Soviet willingness to stop shipping arms to the Arab states in return for a general embargo is a way of saying that the United States and Britain would have to stop shipping arms to countries in the Baghdad Pact. Aside from Britain, they are Pakistan, Turkey, Iran and Iraq.

Another element of skepticism here is a belief that Russia wants to keep the Arab-Israeli situation in a state of turmoil—a source of worry to the West and a threat to Europe's oil supplies—without taking any serious risk of war.

Virus Causes '5th Disease' in Children

By ALTON L. BLAKESLEE

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP)—Discovery of the virus causing a strange "fifth disease" in children was reported today to the Society of American Bacteriologists.

The fifth disease is erythema infectiosum, so called because it can be mistaken at times for measles, German measles, scarlet fever or another rash disease, roseola infantum.

Everything infectious, hildent Truman, upon learning of the death of Senator Alben W. Barkley, who served under him as vice-president:

"He was one of the finest men I ever knew. He was a great congressman, a great senator and one of the greatest vice-presidents of this nation, and a citizen that the United States can always be proud of."

BOSTON — U.S. Rep. Thomas J. Lane (D-Mass.), as he tearfully pleaded guilty to evading $36,543 in federal income taxes:

"Though I have pleaded guilty, deep down in my heart I know there has never been a willful evading of taxes."

ting in epidemics, brings a harmless reddish rash on the face and other body parts. It may be more common than supposed.

The virus causing it was isolated from secretions of sick children, said Doctors Georges H. Werner, Albert Ketter, Philip S. Brachman, and Geoffrey W. Rake, of the University of Pennsylvania.

The virus can be grown in monkey kidney tissue, just like polio and other viruses. This will aid in understanding how it's related to other virus diseases like measles—may be from a common parent virus—and in making a vaccine if one is needed.

An improved vaccine appears to start bringing defense against rubies within 15 days, said Doctors H. M. Powell and C. G. Culbertson of the Lilly Research Laboratories, Indianapolis, Ind., in another report.

The virus to make the vaccine is grown in duck eggs, and then is killed by a chemical, beta propiolactone. This method avoids or reduces risk of paralytic, allergic-type reactions from virus growth in rabbit brains, or from use of live virus, they said.

The new vaccine produced protective antibodies against rubies in tests on dogs and other animals and in 32 humans so far. The defending antibodies appeared within 5 days or less.

Lien Filed Against Utah Governor

SALT LAKE CITY, (UP) — A

lien for $1,203.10 in 1955 income taxes was filed by the federal government today against Utah Gov. J. Bracken Lee.

The action was no surprise to the fiery Utah governor. He had "asked for it" by deliberately refusing to pay the tax. Lee contends use of income tax revenue for foreign aid unconstitutional.

The lien forms, filed with county recorders both in Salt Lake City and price, his former home, did not specify the amount of income involved. Taxes on Lee's $10,000 a year salary as governor have already been withheld. The tax he won't pay is on outside income from a source Lee refuses to disclose publicly.

Charles I. Fox, director of the Internal Revenue service state office here said he could not discuss the Lee case any more than he could, under strict government regulations, talk to newsmen about any other tax case.

The lien, filed against both Lee and his wife, Margaret, listed the $1,203.10 as the amount of the assessment made April 16, 1956, against the Lees.

Time Factor Works Against Millwood

By GORDON BROWN

WASHINGTON (AP)—Winthrop Rockefeller, Chairman of the Arkansas Industrial Development Commission, showed himself to be something of a diplomat in Washington the other day.

After he addressed the Arkansas State Society branch, Rockefeller met with reporters to answer questions and elaborate on his talk. Rep. Brooks Hays (D-Ark) also sat in on the meeting.

Rockefeller was asked, as a Republican, whether he thought there is a chance that his party possibly might pick up a House seat or two in Arkansas this year. With a quick glance at Hays Rockefeller said, without any hesitation: "Well, I think the best thing we can do is to increase Arkansas' population so we can get back that house seat we lost in 1950."

Reporters chuckled at the neat sidestep.

Rockefeller said he isn't taking any active part in politics in Arkansas directly or indirectly, that there is nothing to reports he might be interested in running for governor.

On this latter point he pointed out that under the state constitution a candidate has to live in the state seven years and that he has lived there only three.

Which led someone to observe that at least he had been interested enough in the subject to look into it.

Under the new highway bill which the House recently passed Arkansas would be allotted a total of $35,223,000 of federal funds for the two years period starting July 1, 1957.

Of this $35,223,000 would be for the interstate highway system and the state would be required to match this amount on a 10-90 basis. It also would get $11,516,000 which it must match on a 50-50 basis, for primary, secondary and urban roads.

Arkansas farmers are off to a better start, income-wise, this year than in 1955.

A recent Agriculture Department report shows that for January and February Arkansas farmers received a total of $68,118,000 from marketings of crops and livestock, compared with $62,702,000 for the first two months of 1955.

This increase was virtually all in cash receipts from crops, reflecting sales this year of some of last year's good cotton crop.

The controversy over the proposed Millwood dam will be swirling.

Major State Crimes Show Sharp Decline

WASHINGTON (AP)—Major crime in Arkansas cities declined sharply last year in comparison with 1954.

The drop figured nearly 15 per cent. This was far greater than the national decline of 0.8 per cent.

The figures are from a report issued today by the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

The report shows that 26 Arkansas cities with a total population of 377,460 reported 4,900 major crimes last year against 5,794 in 1954.

There were decreases in six of the eight crime categories listed by the FBI as major. Increases were shown in murder and rape.

The decreases were in negligent manslaughter, robbery, aggravated assault, burglary, larceny and auto theft.

The Arkansas cities reported 227 murders in 1955 against 24 in 1954. For the other categories the figures were: manslaughter by negligence 10 in 1955 and 17 in 1954; rape 32 and 27; robbery 151 and 333; burglary 1,273 and 1,550; larceny 2,701 and 3,144; auto theft 355 and 400.

No state figures were available on rural crime but the report noted that nationally there was a 1.8 per cent increase in rural crimes.

The report listed cities over 25,000 population which submitted crime figures for 1955. Among them were these Arkansas cities: Fort Smith—murder 2, robbery 10, aggravated assault 63, burglary 225, larceny 365, auto theft 47.

Hot Springs—murder 3, robbery 10, assault 1, burglary 148, larceny 253, auto theft 22.

Little Rock—murder 12, robbery 97, assault 93, burglary 525, larceny 1,473, auto theft 158.

Pine Bluff—murder 3, robbery 15, assault 24, burglary 127, larceny 90, auto theft 45.

Cash Is Very Important in Movies Too

By YBO BTHOMAS

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Ever wonder why Hollywood hires actors from all over the world?

Partly, of course, it's because the movie business needs all kinds of bright talent, and talent knows no nationality.

But there's a cold business reason, too. Foreign receipts are getting to be close to half of the film industry's earnings. Hollywood can no longer rely on the United States alone for survival, as it did in World War II. So it pays to have casts in an international flavor.

Take "Rainbow Valley," the costliest epic MGM has made here. It's strictly an American story—the Civil War years in an Indiana town. Added to the American cast is Nigel Patrick, one of the bright stars of the English stage and screen.

Patrick left the London company of "The Remarkable Mr. Pennypacker" and came to America for the first time. His accent was no hazard for the role, since the teacher's nationality is never defined in the novel or the script. Besides, his accent is slight—"that comes from having seen hundreds of American movies as a boy."

Would he like to settle here? "Well, it is a little early to decide," he said. "I have to go right back for a picture in England."

"But I will say that it is the ambition of every young actor in England to make it to the west end. And I suppose every film actor would like to make it to the capital of the movie industry."

What delights him about America? One of the things is flipping the TV dial to different channels and studying the variety of offerings.

If he felt so inclined, he would be able to see much of himself on TV. In a recent week, he was on five English movies on the home screens, including the fine "Breaking the Sound Barrier."

State Revenue Sets a Record

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Last month's state tax revenue set an April record of $9,019,411, an increase of $1,014,882 over the previous high total of a year ago.

Revenue Commissioner J. Orville Cheney said there had been a reversal of previous declining trends in cigarette and liquor taxes and appreciable increases in sales and income taxes.

So far this fiscal year there has been an increase of around $7,600,000 over collections for the corresponding period of the last fiscal year, Cheney reported.

Successor to Barkley May Bring Dispute

FRANKFORT, Ky. (AP)—Some form of political chaos was brewing today over who will succeed Alben W. Barkley in the U. S. Senate.

His death in Lexington, Va., yesterday brought swift speculation on the men most likely to be considered and the possible methods of choosing a candidate to finish his full term—until January 1961.

Gov. A. B. Chandler is empowered by law to appoint a successor to serve until another senator can be elected in November. Normally, this appointee would have the inside track as his party's choice to run for the remainder of Barkley's full term. But Chandler's political enemy, Sen. Earle C. Clements, controls the Democratic State Central Executive Committee which, under present laws, would name the party's nominee.

Because of this split, the possibility arises that Chandler might call a special session of the Legislature to order a special election. Heading the list of prospectives are Chandler appointees to serve until November was Joseph Leary, the governor's close ally and political adviser. Others included Lt. Gov. Harry Lee Waterfield and Mayfield clothier Willie F. Foster and Owensboro publisher Lawrence Hager Sr.

Milk Prices Up in Arkansas

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Retail milk prices increased a half-cent a quart at many major Arkansas dairies today. The higher price followed a U. S. Department of Agriculture order permitting an emergency increase to all producers in areas under federal milk control. Under the new price schedule, home delivered milk will be 47 cents a half-gallon and 24 cents a quart. The price in stores generally will be 44 cents a half-gallon and 22½ cents a quart.

The Agriculture Department said the permit to increase prices followed a winter of low prices for farmers producing milk.

Poppy Day Funds Aid
Veterans' Children

"When you put on a poppy on poppy day to honor the war dead, you will be helping children who are the innocent victims of war," said Mrs. Wordia Stuart, Child Welfare Chairman of Nelson
Hill unit of the American Legion Auxiliary, as the Auxiliary prepare for the annual observance of Poppy Day here May 5, 1956. Poppy Day contributions help finance the child welfare work which the Auxiliary is carrying out constantly for the benefit of needy children of veterans. Mrs. Stuart explained.
Because of the increasing number of veterans' children needing help, she expressed hope that Poppy Day contributions would be generous this year. "Since the Poppy Day program is carried out entirely by volunteer workers, the poppy wearers, above what we pay disabled veterans to make the little flowers, goes to the Auxiliary's child welfare and rehabilitation fund," Mrs. Stuart continued. "Most of it stays right here in Hope, and is expended to meet the needs of local veterans and their families. Poppy money is kept separate from other Auxiliary funds, its use restricted to work for disabled veterans and children.
These volunteer workers will sell the memorial flowers Saturday May 5, 1956. Mrs. W. Stuart,
Mrs. L. Hicks, Mrs. G. N. Davis,
Mrs. A. Holbert, Misses: Dorothy

kansas died at his home Sun-

Reed Selected by Basketball Pros

NEW YORK (U)—St. Louis yesterday selected Jim Reed of Pine Bluff, Ark., in the National Basketball Association draft of college players. Reed played college basketball at Texas Tech.

Bussó Ready for Fast Company

NEW YORK (U)—Johnny Busso, an aggressive lightweight from New York's East Side, one time breaching crowd of great 155-pounders, was ready to move into fast company today.

The 21-year-old ranked up his fifth straight and most important victory of his brief career last night when he won a split decision over veteran Orlando Zulueta in a televised 10-rounder at St.
Nicholas Arena.

Referee Dave Feld (6-4) and Judge Artie Schwartz (6-3-1) voted for Bussó. Judge Frank Forbes had Zulueta ahead 6-4. The AP card had Bussó in front 6-3-1.

Bussó now has a 25-3-1 record, including 12 knockouts. Zulueta's record now is 28-27-10.
Zulueta weighed 159½ to Bussó's 139½.

Wingo Hurls
Barons Over
Mobile Bears

By The Associated Press
The Birmingham Barons, leading the Southern Association because of a great offense rather than sterling defense, came up with a good combination of both in right-hander John Wingo last night.

Wingo, a 6-foot-2 moundsman with a 15-10 record for the Barons last season, fired a 4-hitter as Birmingham whipped the Mobile Bears 2-0 in the Class AA circuit's only game.

The victory was Wingo's fourth against no defeats and gave the Barons a one-half game lead over the idle Memphis Chicks.

Wingo also came up with a single in the eighth to drive in Birmingham's first run. It was his fifth hit of the campaign and boosted his batting average to .332.

The schedule Chattanooga-Little Rock game was postponed by wet grounds and cold weather.
Memphis, Atlanta, Nashville and New Orleans were idle.

Norm Camp of Mobile tossed a two-hitter at the Barons for seven innings. There were two outs in the eighth when he walked a man and was tagged for three hits.
Camp faced only 22 batters through seven innings.

Southern to Start Later
Next Season

ATLANTA (U)—Earl Mann, president of the Atlanta Crackers, proposed today the Class AA Southern Association begin its baseball season two weeks later starting next year in an effort to offset poor early season attendance.

Writing in his daily column,
Edwin Pope of the Atlanta Journal, quoted Mann as saying he will petition the league for the later opening in 1957.

The Southern Association on season began April 10 this year but no games were played that day because of rain.

Mann also said he was considering the player-help proposition.
"Nowadays a Southern club goes a month with little idea of what it will get from its big league affiliate," he said. "If we opened late in April, we'd get our help nearer the actual start of play. All clubs would be helped and fans would see better baseball."

The Crackers president pointed out that on 13 home dates thus far this year the team has drawn 33,000 spectators, an average of about 2,500 a game. A year ago home attendance to this point was 56,000.

Mann said some persons believe that Atlanta needs triple-A rather than double-A baseball. He said he didn't think Atlanta fans "would go for the increased admission necessary to support a triple-A club," and also pointed out that Cracker withdrawal might wreck
the Southern Association.

Committee to Give Report to NCAA

NEW ORLEANS (U)—The National Collegiate Athletic Association's enforcement arm, the Committee on Infractions, gives its annual report today to the group's powerful council.

Walter Byers, NCAA executive director, said A. D. Kirwan of the University of Kentucky, committee chairman, had just started his report when the first session of the three-day council meeting ended yesterday. Byers declined to say what the report contained.

Most of yesterday's session was devoted to selecting committees, approving applications for membership and interpreting rules.

The council worked out a plan for the Olympic basketball squad to practice against college opposition without violating NCAA rules.
The plan is subject to the approval of whatever conferences are involved and will be in effect only for this year.

The council approved applications for allied membership from the Midwest Athletic Assn. and the Pacific Northwest Intercollegiate Athletic Conference.

The Midwest is made up of schools in Ohio, Louisiana, Kentucky, Missouri and Tennessee.
The Pacific Northwest group has members in Idaho, Oregon and Washington.

Cards on Top
for First Time in Five Years

By FRED DOWN
United Press Sports Writer

Just six little putouts — but enough to put the St. Louis Cardinals in first place today for the first time in exactly five years.

That's the story so far for this season for 41-year old Ellis (Old Grand Dad) Kinder, who's been hand for the last putout in no less than three of the rejuvenated Redbirds' six triumphs. Ellis did it again yesterday, retiring the last two batters in St. Louis' 2-0 win over the Milwaukee Braves.

The victory, their fourth over Southpaw pitching in five games, moved the Cardinals into first place in the National League 31 percentage points ahead of the Brooklyn Dodgers and marks the first time they've occupied the circuit's top rung since May 1, 1951.

It was also the Cardinals' second straight shutout and gave Redbird pitchers a string of 19-1-3 consecutive scoreless innings.

In all, Kinder has retired six batters this season but that seemingly puny total adds up to three victories in the books of Manager
Fred Hutchinson and General Manager Frank Lane. For Kinder came out of the bullpen to retire the last batter in Vinegar Bend Mizell's 4-2 opening day win over the Cincinnati Redlegs and hurled the full ninth inning in a 5-3 verdict over the Redlegs on April 24.

With his spotless 2-3 of an inning wrapup yesterday, Ellis has a season's record of two innings pitched, two hits allowed, no earned or unearned runs yielded and three victories saved for the Cardinals.

Tom Poholsky, 26-year old right-hander, shut out the Braves for eight innings yesterday but was yanked when he walked the first batter in the ninth. Jackie Collum retired one batter and then Hutchinson turned over the game to Kinder.

In the process, the Cardinals defeated their No. 1 "jinx pitcher," Milwaukee's Warren Spahn, who entered the game with a 43-22 lifetime edge over the Redbirds. The 35-year old southpaw had a no-bitter for 6-2-3 innings but then Ken Boyer, Rip Repulski and Walley Moon singled in succession to put the Cardinals ahead, 1-0. The Cardinals added another run in the ninth against Lou Sleater to clinch matters.

The game—first played by the Braves in eight days and the Cardinals in five because of bad weather in the West—was the only one scheduled in the majors but the races will be spiced up a bit today with the first inter-sectional clashes of the season on tap.

In the National League, the Eastern teams go West with Brooklyn at Cincinnati, New York at Chicago, Philadelphia at Milwaukee and Pittsburgh at St.
Louis. In the American League, West goes East, with Detroit at
New York, Kansas City at Boston, Chicago at Baltimore and Cleveland at Washington.

So far, neither the world champion Dodgers nor the A.L. champion Yankees have been able to get away from the field—as it was feared they might do early—and there is hope now that both races may be close.

Barkley Widely Beloved by Friends, Foes

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (U)—Sen. Alben
W. Barkley—a man of humor, balance and kindness—was one of those politicians who is widely beloved in his lifetime by his political friends and foes alike.

But when he said—it was the last time he said—that he was content to accept a "seat in the back row" of political life, he was expressing a thought that had come to him late in life. He was accept-

He had wanted more than a

He had been in Congress almost continuously since 1913. And he Perhaps he alone knew how long he had it.

He wanted the presidency. But when at last he reached out, it eluded him.

Yesterday, reviewing his career in an address at a student's mock Democratic convention at Washington and Lee University, he referred good-naturedly to the fact that he was the junior senator from Kentucky.

He had been senior senator for years but lost seniority when he gave up his Senate seat to be vice president from 1949 to 1953. When re-elected senator in 1954, he became junior to Kentucky's Sen.
Earle C. Clements, who was elected in 1950.

Then—just before he dropped dead—Barkley said: "I am willing to be a junior. I am glad to sit on the back row. For I had rather be a servant in the house of the Lord than to sit in the seats of the mighty."

That was how he felt yesterday.
But less than four years ago, at the 1952 Democratic convention in Chicago, he hoped briefly his party might nominate him for the presidency.

BRAIN IS FILM STAR—The functions of the human brain were recently filmed for the first time at a demonstration in Vienna University. Above, a laboratory assistant holds an anesthetic mask over the patient's face. After a contrast substance has been injected into the bloodstream, X-rays are directed through the skull. The X-rays are converted into electronic rays by a complicated apparatus and then photographed by the movie camera at right. The camera can take more than 300 pictures of the brain within 12 to 15 seconds.

HE'S ADLAI'S EX-COOK—During most of 1953, Benaventura ("Benny") Parel was responsible for most of the gastronomical happiness in the Libertyville, Ill., home of Adlai E. Stevenson. But being cook for the Democratic presidential hopeful doesn't impress the 58-year-old Filipino too much. "After all," he says, "I am champion yo-yo artist. Only men who can spin four yo-yos at same time." Above, Benny, now a waiter in an Indianapolis cafe, shows his technique with three yo-yos.

Future of State Plants Encouraging

WASHINGTON (AP)—An Arkansas delegation reported an "encouraging" conference with Defense Department officials today on the future of the Shoemaker Ordnance Plant, Camden, Ark.

Headed by Sens. McClellan and Fulbright and Rep. Harris, the Camden delegation discussed with Thomas P. Pike, assistant secretary of defense for supply and logistics, and other officials prospects of keeping the plant in operation.

"We are pleased at his interest in the situation," said Mayor James Rowan after the meeting. McClellan said Pike had not been particularly aware of the situation at Camden but that he promised to confer with his aides and with Army, Navy and Air Force officials to see what can be done.

"We also urged that he and the secretaries of the Army, Navy and Air Force, or their top aides, go to Camden for a personal inspection of this important facility," McClellan said. "We think that if they become familiar with it they won't want to see it shut down."

The Camden delegation included C. E. Palmer, "Texarkana" publisher; Dr. K. B. Robins, publisher of the "Arkansas Democrat-Gazette"; D. W. Harrell, president of the Camden Chamber of Commerce; and H. K. Thatcher and Mose Zavelo.

3 Involved in $300,000 Burglary Held

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP)—Police arrested three men yesterday and said they had recovered more than $300,000 in cash in what they called a $300,000 burglary.

"Police said the money was recovered in a raid on the home of Harvey Marley, 31, in San Antonio by Houston and San Antonio police and Texas Rangers.

Marley and Edwin Roy Hamlett, 34, Houston automobile salesman, are held in jail here. San Antonio police are holding Arthur Eckert, a used car dealer.

The three men are charged with burglary and felony theft in the looting of a closet safe the night of April 22 at the home of Paul D. Denny, a bakery owner.

"Police said the raid was the result of efforts of San Antonio sports writer Dan Cook to solve the burglary and get his 'big story'.

Cook, of the San Antonio News, took $3,055 to Houston police last Thursday and said he and Jimmy Parks, San Antonio boxing promoter, had taken the money from Hamlett and Jimmy Hicks, an automobile dealer, in an effort to solve the burglary. Police called the story "fantastic" and arrested Cook and Parks on charges of robbery by firearms. They were freed under $10,000 bond.

Police said they can not account for about $201,000 of an estimated $300,000 in cash, government bonds and negotiable securities they said were stolen from the Denny closet safe.

They said about $10,000 in securities was burned, $95,000 in cash was recovered in San Antonio yesterday and they are holding a Cadillac automobile purchased last week by Hamlett for $2,250. These amounts are in addition to the $3,055 which Cook turned over to Houston Police Chief Jack Hedrick.

Denny reported to police on the night of the burglary that the safe holding $100,000 in securities and $10,000 in cash had been stolen while he and his wife were at church.

Asked last night if the safe held as much as $300,000 in cash, Denny replied:

"I think it did. I'm not sure." He said the total amount of cash "might be" over $100,000 but not as much as $300,000.

CHAPTER XX

The door opened and a nurse came in briefly, the nurse with streaking eyes who came on duty at 6 p.m. "You look better, Mrs. Hazard."

"I feel better," it was strange, but she did feel better.

This time the nurse was pleased with what she saw on the thermometer. "Eighty-nine!" She might have been a champion pushing some unpalatable product that needed an atmosphere of hearty approval. "You have a visitor from the State Police, but he could question you for a few minutes once your pulse and temperature were normal again."

A tall figure in coat and belt came in, stepped in the doorway. The young, serious face might have been carved out of pink rock. Alice remembered seeing this uniformed boy before, at the scene of the accident, steadily busy with notes and measurements.

The young girl face smiled. "I shouldn't bother to question Mrs. Hazard, Nurse. Captain Blake will do that later, if he thinks it necessary. But I doubt if he will. I've been checking with the doctor and the night nurses and they've convinced me it was impossible for Mrs. Hazard to leave the hospital last night. After the sedative you gave her at six she had another at ten. At two her fever was up and the nurse on duty then called the doctor. No one actually saw her between ten and two, but these sedatives, plus her fever and weakness all evening make a pretty good alibi for my money."

"Well, I should hope so!" No patient could leave this floor, let alone the hospital, without our being aware of the fact, Sergeant. Everl outside door is locked at night except the main entrance and there is always personnel on duty there."

"Well, that's about it then. Sorry to have disturbed you, Mrs. Hazard."

"Just a moment, please, Sergeant," Alice was pleased with her own voice. It sounded even and normal. "What happened last night that has sent you around?"

The sergeant's look questioned the nurse rather anxiously. The nurse hesitated.

Alice almost laughed. "Don't keep me in suspense!"

"Well, I suppose it won't upset you because you disliked the woman so much," said the nurse reluctantly. "You practically accused her of trying to kill you and your son."

"You're talking about Miss Leah?"

"Yes. She was shot and killed last night. No one knows who did it or why."

Alice had spent her last ounce of emotional reserve last night. Now even when she read the truth finally put into words and made real by them, she could not respond. She had nothing to respond with. She was drained and numb, looking at everything with an unnatural detachment. This numbness seemed like a self-preserving device of the mind—a deliberate self-anesthesia to spare itself the further shock and strain that could have destroyed it.

"And there is no clue to the murderer?" said Alice slowly. "No clues of any kind?"

"No, ma'am."

She looked into the sergeant's eyes. They were opaque and unathomable as dull blue stones. Was it possible the police had not noticed the pigskin bag yet? There was one other explanation as much as $300,000 in cash. Denny replied:

"I think it did. I'm not sure." He said the total amount of cash "might be" over $100,000 but not as much as $300,000.

Communist Issue Delayed by Court

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Supreme Court today put off the decision on the constitutionality of laws under which the Communist party has been ordered to register as a tool of Moscow.

By a 5-4 vote, the high court just sent the case back to the 10th circuit court of appeals for further proceedings to clarify the record.

Specifically, the high court said it asked "to make certain" that the record passed the things upon which the government relies.

Justice Frankfurter delivered the majority opinion on behalf of himself, Chief Justice Warren and Justices Black, Douglas and Tom-land.

Justice Clark wrote a concurring opinion, joined by Justices Brand and Whitaker.

After a 12-month hearing, the Subversive Activities Control Board in 1955 found the party was a "communist-action organization" and directed it to register under terms of the Internal Security Act.

The law requires registration by "Communist-action and Communist-front organizations."

Under terms of the SACEB order the party would have had to list its officers and members, give detailed financial accountings, and supply an inventory of printing and mimeographing equipment. Communist fronts are subject to substantially the same requirements, except the listing of rank and file members.

Failure to register as ordered by the board is punishable by five years' imprisonment and a fine of as much as $10,000 for both. Each day of failure to register constitutes a separate offense. Party lawyers said the penalties thus were "potentially as draconian."

Foreman National Guardsman won the Congressional Medal of Honor in World War II.

Gene, cat-and-mouse tactics. They had found the bag. They had recovered it as hers. But instead of accusing her immediately, they were waging a war of nerves, watching the mousehole, waiting to see just what the mouse would do. The bag was like a time bomb that might go off at any moment.

Would it seem more plausible if she claimed she had not seen it since the accident after the "Changings" dinner? That was out of the question, for it was this very same sergeant who had brought the bag to her room in the hospital after the accident. If the bag were found, he was certain to identify it and testify that she had had it in her hospital room a few hours before Christmas was shot.

"Probably just as well for you, ma'am, that you were in the hospital when all this happened," said the sergeant and now the "mouse" should be a "mouse" and take as a mouse. "The Captain was worried about your charges against Mrs. Leah. He didn't know whether to take them at face value or not. He was on the point of calling in a psychiatrist who has been working with us here lately, a Dr. Basil Williams."

"I've heard of him," said Alice. "Let I thought he was a New Yorker."

"He still has an office in New York, but he lives in Connecticut now and he's focused to practice in both states. Hardly a month ago he no doubt came over to our barracks now in one case or another. He was with the D. A. office in New York for a good many years and he's been in the local jurisdiction. But it would be necessary for you to see him now. It's quite obvious that you were right all along—this thing was mixed up in some sort of conspiracy. Maybe she really did try to kill you that night when her car."

"Maybe," Alice sighed. "I hope you find out what really happened."

"Oh, we will in time." Again she searched his face for a hint of double meaning, but it was wholly impenetrable. "Good evening, ma'am."
